Dan started his insurance career in 1991 as a commercial underwriter at Cincinnati Financial Corporation. He was promoted to team leader in 1996 and joined Schiff Insurance in 1997.

Dan counts various small-cap private companies and families among his book of customers. These include manufacturing companies, private clubs, non profit institutions, arts organizations, restaurants, contractors, and professional firms among others. "My goal is to build a long lasting relationship with my customers. I want to be your agent for life and for future generations to come."

Dan's experience helps him evaluate and tailor the proper insurance products for each customer. Dan highly values honesty and integrity. He looks out for his customer's best interest while obtaining the proper coverage at a reasonable rate. Dan is always available to answer questions and concerns.

Dan and his wife, Julie, have two children, Kristen and Zachary. Dan is active in the community by coaching youth sports and tutoring underprivileged children. Dan's hobbies include golfing, cooking and following his beloved Bengals and Reds. Dan has been a certified Ohio Notary Public since 1992.
