Becky joined Schiff Insurance in 2009 as an administrative assistant. Today, she is the agency's receptionist.

Becky is responsible for all of our customer's first (and repeat) impression of our agency. She monitors all incoming telephone communication for the agency including messaging. She accepts, handles and distributes the daily phone calls throughout the agency. Other duties include handling the incoming and outgoing mail, and overseeing the filing.

Becky has two children with her husband, Scott, and three grandchildren. She is active in her community through her church and children's school.
