Steve began his career as a commercial insurance underwriter in 1981 after graduating from the University of Cincinnati. After gaining experience with more complex risks, he became an agent for a large local broker managing national accounts. Over time, Steve sought the rewards of applying his expertise by serving clients closer to home.

With that in mind, Steve designed his practice to use a consultative approach to insurance by helping business owners and individuals understand what kind of insurance program they have and—maybe more importantly—what they don't have. Steve's commercial expertise extends to professional sports teams, museums, arts organizations, non-profit organizations, contractors and educational institutions.

Steve resides in Montgomery. Outside the office, Steve enjoys serving on various governmental and non-profit boards, horticulture, playing guitar and fly-fishing.
