Prior to joining the agency, Chris was the Regional Director specializing in commercial lines for one of the nation's top 25 property and casualty insurer groups.

He has expertise with the needs of large and small business, particularly schools, breweries, manufacturing, gyms, contractors, non-profit institutions, rental property, and home health care/hospice. He also helps his customers find the best solutions for their personal insurance needs including homeowners, auto and personal liability.

Chris' risk management expertise will help you protect your family, your business and your assets. His personal goal is to be your risk manager so you can better focus on running a successful business, family, and career.

Chris is an all-sports enthusiast who also enjoys volunteering with his community and church. Chris and his wife, Katie, are both from Cincinnati. They live in Mason, Ohio with their three children, Jake, Luke and Carly.
