LaShonda began her insurance career in 2000 when she joined the agency as a file clerk. After working a few years as an administrative assistant she became a Customer service Representative in 2008.

LaShonda works exclusively with Scott Lindsay. She administers and services a large and diverse book of personal lines customers. She takes orders, applies rates and oversees billings and payments. She is proficient in insurance protocols and jargon and is Scott's right hand when it comes to treating his customers with respect and appreciation.

LaShonda and her husband, Bobby, have two sons who they adore. She enjoys going to Bengals and Reds games and serves her community through program sponsored by her church.
