Mike joined the agency in 2005 and concentrates the lion's share of his time with his personal lines customers.

Mike insures various small family owned companies among his clients. These include manufacturing companies, restaurants, contractors, and dentists among others. His personal lines clients all live in the Cincinnati-Kentucky-Indiana Tri-State area although he does insure secondary homes and locations outside of the area.

Commercially, Mike considers the family's involvement when installing an insurance plan. He understands that a business has its personality much as a family does. He sees the Big Picture: the family business is a just as much a member of the family as mom and dad. For his personal lines customers, protecting the family's assets with a proper course of insurance ensures the provider's ability to take care of their family should a calamity occur.

Mike is an avid tennis and platform tennis player. He and his wife, Christy, have three beautiful girls. He enjoys spending his free time with his family and learning new things in science and technology.
