Bryce began his insurance career as a commercial lines underwriter for Cincinnati Insurance. Transitioning to an independent agent seemed like a natural fit and has allowed him to apply his insurance knowledge to design and build insurance programs that meet his clients' specific needs.

Bryce specializes in business and personal insurance. He is passionate about providing services and products with integrity, reliability and precision. He believes in communicating with his clients on a regular basis, educating them about proper insurance coverage, and assisting them with policy and risk analysis. His goal is to build a lasting relationship with every client while ensuring they have the support and protection they need.

Bryce is a graduate of Sycamore High School and The Ohio State University. He is married to Claire, and they live in Oakley with their golden retriever, Maddie. Bryce has made several trips to Haiti and South Carolina serving to help those less fortunate. In his free time, Bryce plays all manner of sports, a passion that started at an early age and continues today.
